Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by West, U.S. Patent 5,172,683.
3. West teaches stethoscope warmer (connector) having pocket 68 adapted to receive and retain the elongated tubular portion 54 of the stethoscope and having a second pocket 70 adapted to hold heating element or storage container 70. The heating element stores chemicals.
4. With respect to claims 5 and 6, the warmer has written or decorative indicia 41 disposed on the outer surface of the pouch member 20 for purposes of either conveying written message or for providing certain aesthetic effects. See column 5, lines 53-55.
5. Claims 1-4, 7, 8, 12, 14-20, and 22 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bates, US 20020157896A1. Bates teaches connector 40 for holding a stethoscope, reflex hammer and penlight comprising a first and second portion 51, locking aperture 57 at the end of the first portion and a locking hook 58 at the end of a second portion. Each portion comprising a flange having two halve portion, which when cooperates the other portion defines a first slot adapted to receive the penlight and a second slot adapted to receive the elongated portion of the stethoscope.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 9, 10, 11, 13, and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bates in view of West. Bates does not teach a portion for displaying indicia. West teaches placing indicia or information on the outside surface of the holder. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time this invention was made to construct the device taught by Bates with information or indicia on the outside surface as taught by West to provide a means of conveying written message or for providing certain aesthetic effects.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 21 and 24-26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
